Testimonial

"How can a serious topic make me laugh? Somehow Jackie Fabulous has taken a topic that so many women struggle with "Who am I without a partner defining me" and turned it funny. Jackie immediately felt like a BFF when she stepped on stage and spoke about her life, from JD to Viral Comic to living with her mother mid divorce. It's a reminder that, at any age, we all have the same thoughts in our head, and the way through that self talk is with laughter. I highly recommend Jackie's unique keynote for all women's conferences as the message impacts all females."
